What our customers say

'When I enlist the services of a broker to secure hotel rooms, I'm looking for more than just someone who books the rooms at a competitive rate and pockets the commission. I'm looking for someone who will negotiate the contract AND advocate for me if there are any issues, at contract time or later. I'm looking for service. That's what I get from TravelAdvocates.'

MARK HOFFMANN
former Chairman, National Tour Association

'The experienced team at Travel Advocates understands our commitment to our customers. They are extremely knowledgeable and recommend only suitable student group hotels. They have great relationships in many destinations, which allows Brightspark Travel Canada the peace of mind and confidence to book a hotel anywhere. I really enjoy working with Robert and Jason. They always provide me with excellent professional service.'
